AMF Southtown Lanes

June 21st, 2008

952-888-9248

Paddock: 8:30 AM

Bowling: 9:00 AM

The first tournament of the 2008-2009 CBA season will be held at AMF Southtown Lanes located at 7941 Southtown Center in Bloomington. Our host for this 48 lane center is CBA member & CBA Hall of Fame Member, Manager David Langer. The bowling center is located on the south side of the shopping center. CBA Member Dave Rasmus owns and operates the Strike Zone Pro Shop located inside the bowling center.

$350.00 Added to Prize Fund from the Linds Shoe Company

The CBA is pleased to announce that Linds Shoes will once again sponsor the CBA tournaments. Jeff Lind & Dave Wiggins have been very generous and loyal to the CBA for many years and we would like to thank them again for their support.

On Track Pro Shops to Continue Sponsoring the "On Track Casher" for the CBA Tournaments

Gary Arntzen and his On Track Pro Shop partners, Carl Fietek, Scott Pohl, Jason Hanson and Mark Voaklander, will once again sponsor our "On Track Casher". After every tournament we hold a 9th & 10th frame eliminator rolloff with the winner receiving a free entry into the next CBA tournament. The CBA very much appreciates everything On Track Pro Shops have done to make our organization better.

Matt Meyer Finishes Off Season with Victory at River City Extreme for 2nd CBA Title

Alexandria's Matt Meyer traveled to Monticello to compete in the Year End CBA at River City Extreme in hope of returning home with the championship. After struggling a little through the first 8 games of the 10 game Saturday qualifying, Meyer figured he better do something to make the cut. He got lined up and shot a pair of 258's in games 9&10 to qualify 11th out of the 12 qualifying positions for Sunday's match play. A better plan of attack on Sunday had him averaging 250 while winning 11 out of 12 matches and easily the top seed heading into the stepladder finals. Taking on 2005 Hall of Fame inductee Jeff Smith of Little Falls in the championship match, Meyer wasn't going to let anything stop him as he continued to strike and shot 258 to Smith's 229 to take home his 2nd CBA title and first Major.

The first stepladder match had the 2007 Hall of Fame inductee Chad Nelson of Owatonna taking on the 2009 inductee and 2007-2008 Bowler of the Year Dan Bock of Albert Lea. Nelson started with the front 7 and didn't give Bock much chance as he had him shut out in the 10th and won 246-237. Up next was Rochester's Rob Downer, who will be inducted this October into the CBA Hall of Fame. A back and forth match had Downer up by 3 in the 9th and Nelson needing to double in the 10th to move on. He took care of business and won 244-238 to face Smith in the semifinal match. A late split by Nelson gave Smith an opening and he took advantage by striking out from the 9th to win 237-233 and a spot in the championship.

Dan Bock shot 2475 (247 avg) in the 10 games of qualifying, winning Bowler of the Year for the 3rd consecutive year and 4th overall and finishing with 260-300-252=812, to take the qualifying leader honors again over Rochester's Brian Floen who had 2463 (246 avg). It took a score of 2309 (230 avg) to make the top 12 cut and 2207 (220 avg) to cash. Four seniors, Ken Holets who had a 299, Tim Hoke, Rob Downer and Clark Poelzer made the cut and Tom Korth cashed while the Bonus Senior cash spots went to Joe Brannan and Ron Lindner. Chad Nelson had a 300 in game 5 Sunday while Matt McNeil shot 299 during Saturday's qualifying for the other honor scores of the tournament.

Brent Stearns outlasted everybody in the River Liquor Store shootout to win the $400.00 while Rookie of the Year, Ryan Burr took 2nd for $300.00. Tony Fitzgerald was 3rd for $200.00 and Bob Hager finished 4th for $100.00.

The CBA would like to thank Mark Parnell and Butch Lindenfeser and their staff for their hospitality in hosting our Year End tournament.
