Three's a Charm for Dave Oulman at November CBA Tournament

Dave Oulman won his 3rd CBA Title at the November CBA tournament as he defeated David Langer in the championship match 222-195. With the championship game coming down to the end Oulman needed to fill the 10th to win. He struck all 3 times and didn't give Langer a chance to take title number 3 away from him. Langer was trying for his 15th title and trying to win back-to-back tournaments.

The first stepladder match had junior bowler Brady Stearns, bowling in just his 2nd CBA tournament, taking on Sam Sylvester Jr. Stearns put up a good fight but fell to Sylvester 208-187. We will see more of this young man in the future. Sylvester had to then take on Chad Nelson but didn't fare too well as Nelson moved on with a 211-190 victory. Up next for Nelson was Oulman and a tough close match was in store. This match was also coming down to the end as Oulman needed to double in the 10th to shut out Nelson and of course he got all 3 strikes to win 248-237.

It took a score of 2133 (213.3 avg) by Carson Kraft of Mankato, who was bowling in his 1st CBA tournament, to make the cash and cut. There was no bonus senior casher as senior bowler John Hommes made the cut and finished 7th. Tracey Magnuson won the bonus woman cash spot with a score of 2000 (200 avg). David Langer led all qualifiers with 2380 (238 avg) and Chad Nelson had 2-300's, 1 in game 3 on Saturday and the other in game 8 on Sunday for the only honor scores of the weekend.

With 5 tournaments to go in the season David Langer leads Dan Bock by 36 points in the Bowler of the Year race and also leads in the Mikes Pro Shop CBA Points Challenge by 8 points over Sam Sylvester Jr. Too bad for Langer as he has to miss the December tournament.

We would like to thank AMF Earle Brown Bowling Manager Shawn Kobylarczyk and Lane Man Scott Sodergren for hosting our CBA tournament
