

Factoid – Iron Man

Mike Wirz is still considered the “Iron Man” of the CBA by once bowling in 125 consecutive tournaments. The current consecutive string of tournaments bowled is 81 by Ron Kish. He came out of juniors in August 2003 and hasn’t missed one. Tom Korth & Dan Bock have bowled in 58 consecutive tournaments each.

Factoid – Year End

Dave Hoppenrath, Sam Lantto & Scott Pohl are the only 3 bowlers to win the Year End Tournament twice. Hoppenrath in 1987 & 1994. Lantto in 1998 & 2003. Pohl in 2001 & 2004.

Factoid

Clark Poelzer & Al Loth have bowled together as CBA doubles partners every year since 1983. They won the very first tournament which was a Best Ball.

Factoid – More US Open History

David Oulman won the 2008 US Open Qualifying tournament and joined Hal Abrams, Jim Hanson and Troy Schwan with the US Open their only CBA Title.

Factoid

Chad Nelson won the Jim Lindquist High Average Award with an average of 222.2 for 187 total games. He also led all bowlers in qualifying with an average of 221.1 for 88 games. Jeff Smith led all bowlers in Match Play average with 227.7 for 52 games and stepladder average with 230.6 for 7 games. Chad Nelson bowled more stepladder games than anyone with 17 while averaging 228.